THE THREE MAJOR CHALLENGES FOR ACHIEVING THE SDGS

To meet the ambitions of the UN SDGs we need to develop a joint understanding of the core dynamics of partnership driven innovation as well as the finances needed to meet challenges and demands in developing countries.

Based on the thematic discussions from day 1, the workshops and panel debate sets out to debate current practise and identify the 10 most pressing challenges for SDG business, financing and innovation through expert intervention and audience involvement.

REGISTRATION, NETWORKING AND BREAKFAST BUFFET

OPENING SPEECH by THOMAS KASTRUP-LARSEN, MAYOR OF AALBORG MUNICIPALITY

09.00 – 10.00

3 PARALLEL DEBATES on:

- THE KEY CHALLENGES FOR REACHING SCALABLE PARTNERSHIP DRIVEN SDG BUSINESSES
  moderated by STUART HART, PROFESSOR, UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT.
  Cross-sector partnership is set as a vehicle for driving the SDGs, but reaching sustainable scalable growth is still for the few. This workshop sets out to discuss the dilemmas and challenges to be addressed. Following to the interventions, the audience is invited to nominate the top 5 challenges to be addressed.
  The debate will feature:
    - BO ØKSNEBJERG, SECRETARY GENERAL, WWF DENMARK
    - RASOUL MIKKELSEN, PARTNERSHIP MANAGER, GRUNDFOS
    - MOGENS KNUDSEN, CEO, C.F. NIELSEN
    - GODFREY BALUKU KIME, MAYOR, MUNICIPALITY OF KASESE, UGANDA
    - ARNE REMMEN, PROFESSOR, AALBORG UNIVERSITY
    - PETER CHRISTIANSEN, HEAD OF SECRETARIAT, GLOBALT FOKUS

- HOW DO WE ESTABLISH THE NEEDED SDG FINANCIAL ECO-SYSTEM
  moderated by CHRISTIAN HONORÉ, CO-FOUNDER, BAXTERS INVESTMENT GROUP.
  Recent analysis from GIIN shows promising potential for profitable impact investments. The Danish impact investment space is still in its early days with limited experience and little strategic focus. The workshop sets out to engage key players in a debate and outline the future roadmap for SDG-driven impact investments.
  The debate will feature:
    - NICOLAI JÆPELT, RESPONSIBLE FOR CROWDFUNDING, COOP CROWDFUNDING
    - SUSANNE DAHL, CEO, COPENHAGEN PHILANTHROPY
    - ANNE-LOUISE THON SCHUR, PARTNER, SDG LEAD
    - JOHN MAGNAY, HEAD OF AGRICULTURE, OPPORTUNITY INTERNATIONAL
    - ANDREAS BROGAARD BUHL, HEAD OF SUSTAINABILITY AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE, IFU
    - KRISTIAN PETERSEN, CEO, BESTSELLER FOUNDATION

- DRIVERS OF HUMANITARIAN INNOVATION
  moderated by JACOB RAVN, CEO, ACCESS2INNOVATION.
  With a growing number of displaced people and local populations facing the implications of climate change and natural catastrophes, innovation of technologies, methods and data collection is necessary to meet the demands from those in need. Despite a yearly turnover of 17,7 billion USD, relief organisations, the private sector and researchers are struggling to grasp the humanitarian innovation potential. This workshop sets out to discuss the challenges of successful humanitarian innovation.
  The audience is invited to join the discussions following short interventions from leading experts, including
- RAHUL CHANDRAN, CEO, GAHI
- DORTE LINDEGAARD MADSEN, SECRETARY GENERAL, ENGINEERS WITHOUT BORDERS
- JACOB CHRISTENSEN, CEO, EVERSHIELD
- ERIK JOHNSON, SENIOR CONSULTANT, CONFEDERATION OF DANISH INDUSTRY
